Adoption Contract

Please read and initial next to each statement.

- _____ I understand that completing the application does not guarantee an adoption.
- _____ Any additional vaccinations or tests will need to be done at my expense.
- _____ In the event I can no longer care for or keep this pet, I will find a suitable new home or if I am living in or near Uvalde, I agree to return the pet to the Humane Society of Uvalde. If I am no longer living in or near Uvalde, I will place the pet with another reputable adoption agency.
- _____ I understand that a new animal may need a period of time to adjust to the change of environment, people, animals, etc. I am willing and prepared to give this animal time to adjust to our family.
- _____ I understand the Humane Society of Uvalde has taken measures to ensure the health of this animal, however, cannot guarantee the health of the pet.
- _____ I understand the Humane Society of Uvalde has consulted with veterinarians to aide in labeling the breed and expected size of the pet however cannot guarantee the breed or size of the pet.
- _____ I will not use tethering, chaining or any means of "tying up" my dog as a means of confinement. I do have a completely fenced yard or containment that is appropriate for the size and temperament of the dog I am applying for. (mark "N/A" if applying for a cat)
- _____ I understand a home visit may be required pre/post adoption. Per the adoption contract, if the dog is found chained or in less than humane conditions or if the dog/cats health or needs are not being properly met, the dog/cat will be removed from the home.
- _____ I will have an ID or rabies tag on my pet's collar to ensure its safe return in the event the pet is lost or runs away.
- _____ I understand the adoption fee is considered a donation and is non-refundable.
- _____ I am at least 18 years of age.
- _____ In the event I am found in violation of any of the above statements, I understand that I am in violation of this contract and the HSU has the right to retain custody of the dog/cat.
